Chances and risks hints This offer for the participation legal capital is not the so called legal security but about a business participation with this in the brochure of described chances and risks. A capital investment into a business participation represents a risk like every entrepreneurial activity. Consequently, a loss of the invested capital of the participant cannot be excluded in principle. The participant therefore should give part of his money as share capital so that he / she can live on if a total loss happens from this investment, see risk instruction in the emission prospect.
I confirm hereby, that the above-mentioned signatory over the content of the participant legal conditions, and the statement reservations and the risk instruction according to the emission prospect and, to have handed over a copy of the emission prospect as well as a copy of the participation form given to him.
